

SCHEDULE

2:00-2:20

Kelsey Harper

"¡Habla, causa!
Vocatives in Peruvian
online interactions."

2:30-2:50

Damián Robles

"Address forms in Don
Quijote: Thomas
Shelton's English
translation (1612)."

3:00-3:20

Alessandra Ribota

"Getting to Know You:
Incidental pragmatics acquisition of tú and usted through the implementation of
Integrated Performance
Assessment."

3:30-3:50

Omar García

"Exploring form of address asymmetries in insult perception."

All About YOU

A Mini-Symposium on Forms of Address

OUR SPEAKERS

KELSEY HARPER

Hispanic Studies

DAMIAN ROBLES

Hispanic Studies

ALESSANDRA RIBOTA

Hispanic Studies

OMAR GARCIA

Psychology

Photo by Todd Smith

TIME: 2PM - 4PM

DATE: 9/8/2017

Glasscock Library (GLAS 311)

The Language Matters Working Group invites you to join us for four student talks on forms of address from a variety of perspectives, followed by lively discussion with Dr. Bettina Kluge, a guest scholar from Hildesheim University (Germany).

Melbern G. Glasscock Center for Humanities Research
Department of Hispanic Studies