

Public Guest Lecture

Gender & Identity as Lenses for Studying Media, Religion and Culture

Mia Lovheim
University of Uppsala

Monday January 25
2:00pm-3:30pm
311 Glasscock Building

Mia Lövheim is Professor of Sociology of Religion at the Faculty of Theology, Uppsala University, Sweden. Her research has focused on religious and gender identity among youth, particularly in online discussion groups and blogs. She is the editor of Media, Religion and Gender: Key Issues and New Challenges (Routledge 2013) and Mediatization and Religion. Nordic Perspectives (with S. Hjarvard, Nordicom, 2012).

This lecture is sponsored by the Texas A&M Religious Studies Program and the Glasscock 3 year Media & Religion Seminar.